

THOUSANDS CONVERTED

Louisville Evangelistic Campaign Swept the City With Force.

SEVEN THOUSAND CONVERTS RESULT.

Louisville, Ky., Feb. 27.—The end of the general evangelistic campaign came with last night's services, but in many of the churches the work will be continued for one or two weeks longer. After estimating the number of conversions at yesterday's services, the revival managers say that they believe the total for the entire two weeks will be nearer 7,000 than 6,000, while about 12,000 persons signed the cards to indicate a desire to lead a Christian life. It is thought that fully 75,000 different persons heard the preaching at one or more meetings, while the total attendance at all the meetings will go well up into the hundreds of thousands.

Dr. J. P. Callahan believes that about 1,000 conversions were accomplished yesterday, which, in addition to the 2,000 during the first week, 3,000 on Decision Day and 2,000 during the last week, brings the result well up to 7,000.

Will Resume His University Duties as Soon as He Leaves the Hospital.

Chicago, Feb. 25.—Dr. William R. Harper intends to return to the University of Chicago, teach his Bible classes, conduct his duties as President of the institution, and live the life he has lived for the last decade as soon as he is able to leave the hospital.

With no hope for his ultimate recovery offered by his physicians, the noted educator will make no radical changes in his daily duties. Dr. Harper will work to complete in detail plans for the future of the school which he has had in mind for more than ten years, and which he has never fully made public. This will consume much of his time.

AFTER FORTY YEARS

Draft of 1863 in Kentucky is Declared Illegal.

On or about the first of February, 1863, President Lincoln ordered a draft of 300,000 men in the United States. Kentucky had been pretty liberal in sending volunteers to the army and thousands were still going, and for this and other reasons the draft was not enforced until 1864. Now, after a period of forty years, the Court of Claims of the United States has declared the draft not legal on the ground that Kentucky had already furnished her quota.

The chances are good for a large amount of money to be returned to some of the older citizens and heirs of others, as each one drafted was released from service in the army on the payment of $300. If this amount together with accrued interest is now returned to each one who preferred paying to service in the army it will amount to more than a thousand dollars in each case. If this money is returned it will be the means of bringing sunshine into many needy homes in many counties in this end of Kentucky.

JACK CHINN SEES ROOSEVELT.

"My Kind of a Man, He Does Things," Says the Kentuckian.

Washington, Feb. 25.—Col. Jack Chinn, of Kentucky, made an early call on President Roosevelt this morning to pay his respects.

"Roosevelt is my kind of a man," said Col. Jack. "He does things. Changed my politics? Not at all; I am a Roosevelt-bryan Democrat."

WEBSTER COUNTY FARMERS

Three Million Pounds of Tobacco Sampled and Ready for Sale.

PRESIDENT AND SECRETARY OF ASSOCIATION AUTHORIZED TO SELL THE CROP AT AGREED PRICES.

[Special to THE BEE.]
Slaughterhouse, Ky., Feb. 27.—The Webster County Tobacco Association held its semi-monthly meeting in Dixon last Saturday. Every section where the association exists was represented except Outon. The executive committee after a short, harmonious session made, in substance, the following report:

First, that the three million pounds of tobacco now held by the association was sampled and now ready to be offered for sale.

Second, President Ben Watson, Dixon, and Secretary J. V. Poole, Poole, be authorized to negotiate said sale either by correspondence or otherwise to the local buyers or to foreign manufacturers or buyers.

Third, that all tobacco now striped be hung up or kept in safe keeping condition. That what is to be striped get to be managed by hanging up or any other method, that no one may lose anything on getting tobacco damaged while down and waiting for a sale to be effected.

Fourth, that each delegate constitute himself a committee to canvass his respective territory to ascertain the sentiment of the tobacco growers as to the expediency of curtailing the next crop and report same at the next meeting. Should the sentiment to curtail prevail steps to that end will be submitted, agreed upon, and taken at once.

Fifth, that the association next meet in Sebree March 11 at 9 o'clock a. m.

While the committee was formulating its report the court house had been filled by farmers and sympathizers in the tobacco move and had been entertained by lawyers, Harris and Bourland, with telling speeches. The report of the committee was received without a dissenting vote.

Secretary Poole made a nice talk that was well received. Calls for L. G. Nance were made, but owing to his weak physical condition, having just recovered from a nine days seige of la grippe, was unable to respond further than to excuse himself and thank the crowd for its courtesy.

Mr. J. A. Aldridge was next called and responded in a pointed and telling speech of five minutes or more. Jim Bailes, of the Dixon Journal, was next called forth and the many things that Jim said and the way he said them showed that Jim was LOATHED for this occasion, so much so that Louis Hancock, formerly of Henderson county, who was next called, was forced to confess, with one exception, Jim had made the best speech he had ever heard on the subject of the present tobacco situation and the workings of the A. S. of E.

Mr. Hancock also held the audience quite a while in presenting telling points that showed him to be no novice in ex-temperamental speech-making.

It is hoped that the weather may be favorable for the Sebree meeting as an effort will be made to an effort will be made to get some able speakers there as well as to groom some of our lesser lights or local celebrities for that occasion.

You will observe Mr. Editor, from the foregoing that the contest is on in these ends of the earth. The price set by the association is 8¢ for all dark western tobacco and 6¢ for green, nondescript and drowned tobacco. It is estimated that it costs all told six dollars to produce a hundred pounds of tobacco. Granting that to be true it will be seen that 8¢ is an exorbitant price for tobacco. The man who sells a pair of brown shoes for $1.25 that cost $1.00 makes a higher per cent. profit than does the farmer who sells a pound of tobacco at 8¢ that cost 6¢ to produce; that when he sells for less than 6¢ he sells at a sacrifice. But there is a change coming. The farmer is going to awake and demand. He will assist in making prices instead of allowing the other fellow to do the price making. See if he doesn't. NED.

GEN. WHEELER'S DAUGHTER

Will Be Sponsor for the South at Next Confederate Reunion.

Louisville, Ky., February 26.—Gen. Stephen D. Lee, commander in chief of the United Confederate veterans, has announced the appointment of Miss Carrie Peyton Wheeler, daughter of Gen. Joseph Wheeler, to be sponsor for the South at the Confederate reunion to be held in Louisville, June 14, 15 and 16. Miss Wheeler has selected Miss Lena Swift, of Atlanta, and Miss Clara Hall, of Louisville, to be her maids of honor.

Box Party.

A box party will be given at the Armory Friday night, March 10th, for the purpose of raising funds to add another room to the Methodist parsonage. The parsonage now has only three rooms and as Rev. King, the present minister, has a large family they are consequently very much inconvenienced. The program of the party will be as follows: Each lady, young or otherwise, who will, is requested to prepare a lunch in a box and place her name therein. These boxes will be sold to the gentlemen at 25 cents each and the gentleman purchasing the box will share his lunch with the lady whose name is found on the inside. Both before and after the lunch appropriate games will be instituted for the amusement of the children and the younger people. The invitation is open to all who will accept and it is hoped a large number will respond, remembering the worthy object for which it is given.

MORMON TITHING SYSTEM.

Government and State Salaries and Even Those of School Teachers Must Pay Tribute.

Washington, March 1.—Senator Kearns, of Utah, in the course of a speech in the senate, Tuesday, in which he inveighed bitterly against the Mormon hierarchy, referred to the tithing system. He said that no accounting was made of this vast sum of one-tenth of the incomes of all the Mormons, and that the president of the church expended it according to his own will. He said the hopelessness of contending in a business way with this autocrat was perfectly apparent, and concluded:

"It will amaze you to know that every dollar of United States money paid to any servant of the government, who is a Mormon, is tithed for the benefit of his monarch. Out of every thousand dollars thus paid he sends $100 to swell his grandeur. This is also true of most of the paid out of the public treasury of the state of Utah to Mormon officials. But what is worst of all, the monarch dips into the sacred public school fund and extracts from every Mormon teacher one-tenth of his or her earnings and uses it for his unaccounted purposes; and by means of these purposes and the power which they constitute, he defies the laws of his state, the sentiment of his country, and is waging war of nullification on the public school system so dear to the American people."

FOR THE INAUGURATION.

Governors of Fourteen States Will Participate in the Inauguration of President Roosevelt.

Washington, March 1.—With the great bulk of the arrangements for the inauguration of President Roosevelt on March 4 completed, the work has narrowed down to winding up the final details.

The governors of 14 states are expected to participate in the parade. They are: Governors Bell of Vermont; Roberts of Connecticut; Cobb of Maine; McLean of New Hampshire; Higgins of New York; Lea, Delaware; Cummins of Iowa; Warner of Michigan; Blanchard of Louisiana; Pennypacker of Pennsylvania; Montague of Virginia; Glenn of North Carolina; Herrick of Ohio, and Warfield of Maryland.

Gov. Cummins of Iowa has arrived here. He announced that 65 high school boys of Iowa are coming to join the high school representation in the parade.

The brigadier-general commanding the United States marine corps has announced the detail of a regiment of two battalions of marines for the inaugural parade. These will number about 600 men, exclusive of the Marine band.

GETTING READY

Details for the Inauguration Rapidly Being Perfected.—Governors of Fourteen States

WILL BE IN PARADE.

Washington, D. C., March 1st.—With the great bulk of the arrangements for the inauguration of President Roosevelt on March 4 completed the work today narrowed down to winding up the final details. The headquarters of the Inaugural Committee was a busy scene and Chairman Wilson and Secretary Hitchcock greeted a host of visitors and conferred with their corps of committee assistants. One of the first arrivals today was a band of Sioux Indians, who told the committee that they were anxious to participate in the parade in their native regalia. Gen. Wilson referred them to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs. They cannot be assigned places in the procession, but may be given some outside honorary duties in connection with the inaugural ceremonies. The Indian representation in the parade will consist of the delegation of half a dozen famous warrior chiefs, recently announced, and a cadet battalion of 800 of the Indians from the Carlisle Indian school at Carlisle, Pa. The Carlisle Band of fifty pieces will accompany the battalion.

The Governors of fourteen States are expected to participate in the parade. They are:

Govs. Bell, Vermont; Roberts, Connecticut; Cobb, Maine; McLean, New Hampshire; Higgins, New York; Lea, Delaware; Cummins, Iowa; Warner, Michigan; Blanchard, Louisiana; Pennypacker, Pennsylvania; Montague, Virginia; Glenn, North Carolina; Herrick, Ohio, and Warfield, Maryland.

The influx of inaugural visitors has begun, and all the railroads entering Washington have made preparations to handle an immense crowd from every quarter of the country. Some of the regular troops, including the Seventh United States cavalry, from Georgia, and 300 troopers of the Ninth cavalry, from Missouri, have arrived. Capt. Seth Bullock, former Sheriff of Deadwood county, S. D., and a personal friend of President Roosevelt, who will command a detachment of cowboys in the parade, reached here ahead of his detachment in order to arrange for their reception.

All along the line of march and adjacent streets flags and bunting are displayed on buildings, reviewing stands have been built on both sides of Pennsylvania avenue at frequent intervals between the Capitol and the White House.

Complaint is made that Tom Lawton is slow in reaching the climax of his story. Wall Street says there will be no climax.

A FOOLISH PLAN

It is to eat—I welcome my dinner hour; because I eat indignation with August Flower!

Constipation is the result of indigestion, biliousness, flatulency, loss of appetite, self-poisoning, anemia, emaciation, uric acid, neuritis in various parts of the system, catarrhal inflammation of the intestinal canal and numerous other ailments that rob life of its pleasures if they do not finally rob you of your life!

I'm bound in the bowels, is a common expression of people who look miserable and are miserable who pride in "letting nature take its course."

What a foolish plan, when nature could be aided by the use of Green's August Flower, which is nature's own remedy for constipation and all stomach ills.

August Flower has new life to the liver and restores healthy stools.

One of the curiosities of Salt Lake City, in the eyes of many visitors who have passed through the town recently, is the sight of the messengers boys riding bicycles easily along the streets with heavily laden trays on their heads. The First Ride.

An old lady from Beaver Dam took her first railroad trip last week. She noticed the bell cone overhead, and, turning to a boy: "Sonny, what's that for?" "That's a bell," he said, with a mischievous twinkle in his eye, "is to ring the bell when you want something to eat." Shortly afterwards the old lady reached her umbrella up to the cord and gave it a vigorous pull. The whistle sounded, the brakes were pulled on, the train began to slacken its speed, windows were thrown up, questions asked, and confusion reigned among the passengers. The old lady sat calmly through it all, little dreaming that she was the cause of the excitement. Presumably the conductor came running through the train and asked: "Who pulled the bell?" "I did," replied the old lady, meekly. "What do you want?" asked the conductor, impatiently. "Well," said the old lady, meditatively, "you may bring me some ham sandwiches and a cup of tea, if you will"—5c.

What the Leading Dailies Say of the Great Barlow Minstrels.

Season 1924-5.

The attraction at the Grand last night was A. A. Colburn's Great Barlow Minstrels, and a fine program, good singing, bright and catchy music and specialties as advertised were heartily enjoyed by one of the best pleased audiences in that popular house this season. Coming to this city without the usual blarney and claims of untold magnificence this company gave a most enjoyable performance, introducing new ideas in first part settings, costumes, and a fine olio of vaudeville specialties. A very good show, indeed.—Galveston News, Galveston, Tex.

"A very good audience, considering the inclement weather, was at the Grand Theatre last night to see the Great Barlow Minstrels. The audience was well pleased and the performance highly enjoyed. The principal merry maker is Ed C. Hayes, who is equal to half a dozen comedians. The program is strong and vaudeville features were particularly pleasing.—Telegraph, Macon, Ga.

Nothing but praise can be given the clean-cut, enjoyable performance given by the Great Barlow Minstrels at the Academy this week. The company carry a fine band, the singing is really excellent and the comedians free from anything like coarseness in their comedy and stories. A number of clever specialties and novelties in the olio contribute to fill out one of the best minstrel bills seen this season.—Washington Post, Washington, D. C.

The largest farm in the world, which until recently was contained inside the state of Missouri, has been extended into Iowa.

It is owned by David Rankin and his son, W. F. Rankin, of Tarkio.

The elder Rankin is worth over a million and has made it farming.

He owns 250 acres in Atchison county, and, being still afflicted with the westerner's desire to "own all the land in Iowa," had to reach over into Fremont county, Iowa, the other day when he gathered in 3,500 acres more.

Rankin never sells. He is a cattle king, a corn king, a land king, a philanthropist, and a captain of industry. He employs about 300 persons, representing 1,500 population; owns his own elevators in the towns where he does business, complete sets of buildings on the various subdivisions of his lands, a trolley line of his own to take produce to the railroad, and lives in a mansion in Tarkio to which town he has given a library, manual training school and many other benefits.

Rose Coghlan was the bright paragon of Lester Wallack's original American production of "Diplomacy," Sardou's master comedy. Through the intervening years her name has been linked with that of Countess Zicka, the Russian adventuress in the play, which has just been called her greatest characterization. Admirers of Miss Coghlan will be pleased to learn that she has played an unnecessary revival of "Diplomacy" for an extensive tour of the country, ending with a long engagement in New York City next spring. YOUR GRIP ON YOURSELF.

Retain That Tough You Have to Let Everything Else Go.

Some people get along beautifully for half a lifetime perhaps while everything goes smoothly. While they are a good deal of company and gaining friends and reputation their characters seem to be strong and well balanced, but the moment there is friction anywhere, the moment trouble comes—a failure in business, a quarrel with a friend, or when they lose their all—they are overwhelmed. They despair, lose heart, courage, faith, hope and power to try again—everything. Their very manhood or womanhood is swallowed up by a mere material loss.

This is failure indeed, and there is small hope for any one who falls to such a depth of despair. There is hope for an ignorant man who cannot write his name even if he has stammered his backbones. There is hope for a cripple who has courage, and there is hope for a boy who has nerve and grit, even though he is humiliated in that he has apparently no chance to do better.

Do not let your grip on yourself slip. Do not let your manhood or womanhood go. This is your priceless pearl, dearer to you than your breath. Cling to it with all your might. Give up your life first—Success.

Impoverished Soil

Impoverished soil, like impoverished blood, needs a proper fertilizer. A chemist by analyzing the soil can tell you what fertilizer to use for different products.

If your blood is impoverished your doctor will tell you what you need to fertilize it and give it the rich, red corpuscles that are lacking in it. It may be you need a tonic, but more likely you need a concentrated fat food, and fat is the element lacking in your system.

All Star Cast of "Diplomacy."

"Diplomacy" has been described by an able critic as a play calling for an entire company of stars. Realizing the truth of this statement, Miss Rose Coghlan has chosen for the present big revival of Sardou's masterpiece Howard Kyle as Henri Beaulieu, herself as Countess Zicka, and actors and actresses for the other parts who occupy the highest positions on the New York stage. The most wonderful of emotional actresses will make the revival in every sense worthy of the original production at Wallack's Theatre in New York City, when she was associated with such celebrated histrions as Lester Wallack, Harry Montague, Frederick Robison and Mme. Ponet. The all star "Diplomacy" production is to be seen at the Morton Theatre on March 7th.

Women are kindreds.

Women are more often afflicted with kidney troubles than men, but attribute the symptoms to diseases peculiar to their sex, while in reality the trouble is the same. New Yorker Will Establish Ranch and Grow Reptiles for the Restaurant Market.

Buffalo, N. Y. A farm of 30 acres owned by Perry B. Hunt, of New York city, who declares his intention to establish a rattlesnake ranch and raise the reptiles for the New York restaurant market. Mr. Hunt claims that there was a growing demand in New York restaurants for the flesh of the rattlesnake.

"It has been served in five places for some two years," he said, "and the snakes as possible demand justifies me in making this venture. Naturally, the supply is limited and the prices are high, and for a time at least I hope to make some money. My plan is to entice as many of the snakes as possible from their hiding places by decoys of live rabbits. These I shall confine in pens, and, reserving some of the finer specimens, will fatten the remainder and breed as fast as possible. I will feed them on rabbits mostly, although the menu will be varied by occasional frogs and chickens. I hope to 'harvest' not less than 5,000 rattlers the first year, and I will begin operations as soon as the rattlesnakes make their appearance in the spring."

The locality of the "farm" is ideal for its purposes. From time immemorial the vicinity of the Niagara gorge and whirlpool justifies the name of the North American rattlesnake, the largest of its kind. The guides point out a rattlesnake cove, a rattlesnake dell, and the famous Devil's Hole and Foster's Flats have long been avoided by local visitors and tourists, as they are infested with great numbers of these creatures.

The rattlesnakes are good navigators, and cross and recross the river in its widest rapid.

Mr. Hunt says the flesh of a rattlesnake is not unlike that of a roast snaking pig, white and exceedingly palatable.

Sugar-coated, easy to take, mild in action. They cure constipation, biliousness, sick-headache.

BIG BATTLE ALL ALONG THE LINE

According to Russian Advice the Japs Are Attacking Everywhere.

ALL ATTACKS BEATEN BACK

Russians claim to have seized the head of a bridge across the Shabke river, in the center of the Japanese lines.

Fighting on a large scale is in progress between the Russian and Japanese armies in Manchuria. Gen. Kuropatkin, after meeting the initiative of the Japanese in the eastern part of the Shabke valley, advanced the aggressive in the western part yesterday and, under cover of a heavy artillery fire from Fort 81 and 82, secured a hill overlooking the bridge.

The Japanese from a position to the east of Sandiapa, simultaneously the Russians attacked and captured a railroad bridge on the Japanese center. Much more serious is the Japanese move against the Russian line, which, therefore, unless quickly checked, will threaten the Russian position.

Gen. Kuropatkin is advancing the positions on the line, which he has occupied and fortified during the winter.

Mukden, March 1.—Fighting is in progress along the whole line, the Japanese attacking everywhere. All attacks Tuesday morning were beaten back, and the Russians made counter attacks at many places. On the right flank, the Russians occupied the village of Bontarski, which is close to Sandiapa, and from that position hurled hand grenades across the intervening ravine into the Japanese trenches in Sandiapa, causing heavy loss and great disorder.

The Sins of the Parent
FREQUENTLY FALL UPON THE CHILDREN

Especially terrible does it seem that children should be born into the world—as they frequently are—having in their little innocent bodies the germs of Specific Blood Poison, or, more frequently, Scrofula, which is, as a rule, the result of Specific Blood Poison in some ancestor.

It would be an outlook almost too intolerable to contemplate if such scourges as scrofula and other forms of blood poisoning were incurable. Yet for long centuries these diseases have baffled the most skillful medical science.

Men and women in the past have resorted to cures for these diseases which were almost as obnoxious and dangerous as the disease itself. The taking into the system of mercury and other mineral drugs cannot be too strenuously condemned and avoided in such cases.

That a cure, absolute and sure, can be effected is evidenced by the following letter, telling of the result of taking

FOERG'S REMEDY

Oconomia, Va., Aug. 19th, 1903

To Whom It May Concern:—We have two little twin girls that were badly afflicted with Scrofula. After trying three of the best doctors we could employ they continued to get worse all the while. I was advised by a friend to try Foerg's Remedy, so I procured one bottle, and it has cured them sound and well. This was four years ago, and no sign of return, so I cannot say too much in commendation for I think it the best blood medicine in the world. S. C. COURTNEY.

KRATZ IS "NOT GUILTY"

Former St. Louis Councillman, Who Was Brought from Mexico, Goes Free.

Kratz began to cry when Verdict Was Read, and Was Kissed by Wife and Mother.

Butler, Mo., Feb. 25.—Charles Kratz, former St. Louis councillorman, was found not guilty on the charge of bribery in connection with the Suburban bill at 1:30 a. m.

The jury was out an hour and forty-five minutes.

Kratz began to cry when the verdict was read, and was kissed by his wife and mother, who flew to his side as they heard the word:

"NOT GUILTY."

"I am glad," was all Kratz would say for a time.

Later, when more calm, Kratz made his statement:

"I knew in my conscience that I was innocent, and am pleased and vindicated by my own mind. I am now free and have nothing hanging over me, for the first time in three years."

"I admit I made a mistake when I went to Mexico, but I did not think at that time."

The jury retired at 11:45 p. m. After being classified for half an hour Judge Benton sent word that if a verdict had not been reached the jurors would be locked up for the night.

Word was sent back that a little more time was wanted.

CHARLES KRATZ. From a sketch made in the courtroom at Butler, Mo., during the trial.

At 1:15 a. m. it was announced that a verdict had been reached.

Circuit Attorney Sager had retired and a messenger was sent to bring him into court.

When he arrived the jury was brought into court and the verdict was handed to Judge Benton by H. O. Macy, foreman.

The following statement was issued by Judge Harvey, Thomas T. Fountain and Thomas Rowe, attorneys for Kratz:

"We did not have a doubt in our minds as to what the verdict would be, and had left the courtroom and were asleep when the verdict came in."

"Those jurors could not convict a man on the testimony of such witnesses as the state presented. Those jurors could not honestly read an innocent man to prison while the big fellows go loose."

"The jurors of Bates county returned the verdict, and no doubt knew what they were doing," was all Sager would say.

Finding of the International Commission in the North Sea Incident.

LARGE PORTION TRANS-CASCAUS IN STATE OF OPEN REVOLUTION

Hundreds of Armenians slaughtered by Armed Mamelukes, Who Have Come in From Country and Joined the Ranks of the Striking Workmen.

Paris, Feb. 27.—The international commission on the North Sea incident finds that "THE OPENING OF FIRE BY ADMIRAL HOENSTEVENSKY WAS NOT JUSTIFIED."

The decision was publicly announced at the closing session of the commission Saturday.

The decision largely sets forth the circumstances and incidents, and gives the opinion of the court on the various important points involved.

The decision says the delay in the Russian transport Kamschatka, following the breakdown of her machinery, can perhaps be the cause of the incident.

The commander of the Kamschatka, Admiral Popov, was not attacked by torpedo boats, as he had been attacked by torpedo boats.

The admiral, therefore, had reason to believe he would be attacked, and gave orders for strict vigilance against the possible approach of torpedo boats.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 25.—A large portion of Trans-Caucasia, according to reports, is in a state of open revolution.

The military force of the country is unable to cope with the rioters. Telegram wires have been cut, so that no official reports can be transmitted.

Violence and arson are believed to be rampant. The cities of Batoum, Baku and Port are under mob rule. Hun troops of Armenia have been slaughtered by armed Mamelukes who have come in from the country and joined the forces of the strikers.

LOCOMOTIVE BLASTS

A well known fireman of Howell, who has been firing on the St. Louis Division, took a sudden notion recently to hand in his resignation, giving no reason for his action. It seems, however, that he had been promised a much better position by an Evansville Employment Agency, managed by Squire Early, who is now under arrest for using the mails to defraud. This particular fireman had paid Squire Early $5 for this particular job, which he did not get. If anything, this shows that a fool and his position are soon parted—and especially if his position is a good one. It also shows that the "Early" bird that caught the worm was in a bad business.

Fireman John Russell has resigned, and will go south to make his future home there.

H. C. Cunningham, foreman of the boiler shops of the Southern R. R. at Princeton, Ind., has resigned.

Our biggest, blackest troubles are often only the locomotive drawing our richest treasure train.

J. B. Caraway has been appointed traveling fireman for the Henderson and St. Louis Division. Mr. Caraway is a deserving young man, having worked himself up from a round house laborer. He has applied himself closely to his work as a road fireman being ambitious and full of energy, and grasping every opportunity to master the art of successful firing. As the man who does the little things well will also do the large things well, we would predict that Mr. Caraway will have no trouble in proving his efficiency for the position to which he has been elevated.

Engineer McMickle and fireman, Boultinghouse, of the coal train between Mascoutch and E. St. Louis, spent the day at Howell Sunday.

One of the St. Louis Division firemen had an adventure in E. St. Louis recently which he will not soon forget. He was hurrying to the roundhouse, being a little late, to go out on his run, carrying a telescope containing the clothes of his room-mate, who, it seems, had been sent to another part of the road, and requested him to forward his clothes. A policeman saw the hurrying fireman, and thinking him to be a burglar, commanded him to halt. The following conversation ensued:

"Where are you going?"

"I am going to work."

"What have you got in that grip?"

"A lot of clothes."

"Are they yours?"

"No, sir, they are not mine."

"What are you going to do with them?"

"Send them to the fellow they belong to."

"I expect you had better come along with me. You may consider yourself under arrest."

The fireman had a hard time convincing the policeman that he was all right, in fact he came near delaying his train on account of being thus detained.

THE MASTER OF THE SOIL.

I like the honest farmer man,
The hardy son of toil;
The man who hoes and rakes and mows—
The master of the soil.
The man who wears a battered hat,
Whose trousers show repair;
Whose horny hand attacks the land
And plants a garden there.
The man who turns his rested eye
To greet the waking dawn;
Whose herd he feeds and tends its needs
Before the breakfast hour.
All hail the honest farmer man,
And compliment his toil;
The man of worth, who feeds the earth—
The master of the soil.

Helpful Hints.

Sheep raising, it is said, is fast becoming the greatest live stock industry in the world.
The strawberry plant is something of an evergreen, its leaves remaining green throughout the winter.
Every farmer, no matter what crop he is raising, should find out for himself the particular kind of fertilizer his land needs.
The potato has been forced from its natural functions since the beginning of its cultivation, until it expends all of its energy in the production of tubers.
An apple curiosity comes from New York. It has a light yellow skin and flesh which runs from bright red to a salmon color. It is not large, but is very good eating.
The flour the soil, the more likely is the seed down to be covered from the sunbills, and the quicker will capillary action be established. Capillary action is necessary to give the seed water for the development of the shoot.
Kansas has a tame goose 52 years old, which is still hale and hearty. Its grand brother died 13 years ago and its sister goose five years ago. Though her "lovely companions" are gone this last goose is as nimble and sprightly as those of her kind generations younger.
Separate the sexes.
It is the height of foolishness to allow the male birds to run with the hens during the fall and winter months unless eggs are wanted for hatching. It should be remembered that an unfertilized egg is dead matter, while a fertilized one contains a life-germ that is ready to take on animal existence as soon as the proper conditions are furnished. Even at a low temperature of 60 degrees a fertilized egg will begin to decay long before an unfertilized one would show the least change. Keep the male and female separate. Commercial Poultry.

Many small things will make a large result. If every farmer would plant an improved variety of corn that would add only one more grain to each year the total would be 5, 20,000 extra bushels of corn in the United States. Any farmer can easily increase his own crop by adding one kernel to each year, says Prof. Hunt, in his "Cereals of America."

JAPANESE FORCES ARRIVE AT MUKDEN

They Are Pouring a Steady Fire From Eleven-Inch Mortars Into the Town.

KUROKI'S FORCES MANEUVERING TO CUT RAILROAD TO THE NORTH.

Another Force Is Heading to the South and East to Cut Off Rail Communication With Vladivostok.—Russian Adult Advantage Is With Japanese.

Newswatch, Feb. 23, via Tientsin, 3 p. m.—A correspondent who has just returned here from the front, says that the general advance of the Japanese forces which is now on has resulted in Gen. Kuroki's forces reaching Mukden, into which they are now pouring a steady rain from 11-inch mortars. The besiegers appear to have the range to the fort and are doing great damage behind the Russian lines. Reports from Chinese sources say that the advance movement of the Japanese is a general one, extending all along the line, and that it is moving with great success. Kuroki's forces are said to be maneuvering to cut off the railroad to the north of Mukden, while a special force is moving to the south and east to cut off rail communications with Vladivostok.

TOKIO SAYS AUTHORITY.

Later Reports Confirm Oyama's Claims of Success.

Tokio, Feb. 23.—Late reports from the Manchurian headquarters in the field, confirm the first reports of Field Marshal Oyama's victorious attack of the Russian east wing about 50 miles southeast of Mukden. The battle, which the report intimates is being attended with heavy casualties on both sides, is still in progress, but the attacking party has already captured the Russian's outer works and is now concentrating its attack on the main position.

KUROKI'S HANDS ARE FULL.

Admits the Advantages in Present Action Are With Japanese.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 23.—An action of no mean proportions is in progress of the Russian left flank. The advantage thus far is on the side of the Japanese, though at heavy cost. From advice from the front it is difficult to say how severe the losses have been, or how decisive the reverse, and whether the Japanese are likely to attempt to drive in the Russian left flank further. Gen. Kuropatkin evidently has been trying to establish his left flank in advance to command the crossings of the Taitse river, the operation being a counterpart of Gen. Gripenberg's movement on the right flank to secure the fords of the Hun river preparatory to the breaking up of the line in the spring. The scene of the operations is 50 miles southeast of Mukden, beyond Da pass, an important defile commanding the route to Pushan. Both armies occupying apparently impregnable positions on the centers. Gen. Kuropatkin evidently planned to in a surprise widely sweeping operations on both flanks, but the Japanese countered hard.

Press dispatches from the front indicate that the weather is fine and favorable for operations, and that all is quiet on the Russian right wing.

According to a Vladivostok dispatch, the entrance to that harbor is open, and the situation, which is precarious, is apparently taking no risks, but is saving its strength for co-operation with Vice-Admiral Rojestvensky's squadron.

BRIDGES WRECKED BY ICE

Kansas City Cut Off From the Packing House District By the Wrecking of Bridges.

Kansas City, Mo., Feb. 23.—Flooding ice in the Kaw river has completely wrecked the pile bridges of the Kansas City Belt line and the Rock Island railroad. The material of these structures has been saved, but the railroads have not yet decided whether they will rebuild the pile bridges or hasten the construction of steel bridges. It is said that the railroads may be enabled from rebuilding pile bridges, as they are considered a menace to other property. The Kansas City Belt line now has connection with the packing house district, and the Rock Island will have to use other roads to move freight from the west bottoms to Armourville.

HOT PAUL JONES' COFFIN

The Leader Coffin Entered in Paris Pressed to Contain the Remains of an Englishman.

Paris, Feb. 23.—A preliminary examination which Ambassador Portier is making for the body of John Paul Jones, the naval hero of the revolutionary war, recently discovered a lead coffin. The name plate on the coffin was very much corroded, but the inscription has finally been deciphered, showing that it was the coffin of an Englishman buried May 5, 1790, two years before the death of Jones. Consequently the coffin will not be opened. The examination continues.

HEALTH

"I don't think we could keep house without Thedford's Black-Draught. We have used it in the family for over two years with the best of results. I have not had a doctor in the house for that length of time. It is a doctor in itself and always ready to make a person well and happy."—JAMES HALL, Jacksonville, Ill.

Because this great medicine relieves stomach pains, frees the congested bowels and invigorates the torpid liver and weakens kidneys.

No DOCTOR

is necessary in the home where Thedford's Black-Draught is kept. Families living in the country, miles from any physician, have been kept in health for years with this medicine as their only doctor. Thedford's Black-Draught cures indigestion, dyspepsia, colds, chills and fever, bad blood, headaches, diarrhoea, constipation, colic and almost every other ailment because the stomach, bowels and liver kidneys so nearly control the health.
